Birthplace: Milan, Italy

Studied: Conducting, piano, and composition in Milan

1992 CD Highlights: Debussy: Pelléas et Mélisande; Schumann: Requiem for Mignon; Rossini: Barber of Seville with Battle & Domingo; and a spirited Mahler: First Sym. with Berlin (his first recording as Music Director!)

Scouting Report: Claudio Abbado does it all: Music Director of the Vienna State Opera and the Berlin Philharmonic, Artistic Adviser of the Chamber Orchestra of Europe to name a few. With an astounding range of repertoire, his critically acclaimed recordings for DG include everything from Pergolesi to Ligeti. The Boston Globe says Abbado "is probably the most searching and accomplished conductor of the day."

Did You Know? Claudio Abbado and his classmate Zubin Mehta joined a Vienna chorus so they could work under Herbert von Karajan.

Studied: Started playing piano at 3

1992 CD Highlights: Beethoven Cello Sonatas with Mischa Maisky; Liszt transcription of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony; Prokofiev Violin Sonatas with Gidon Kremer

Scouting Report: People magazine says Martha Argerich is "widely touted as the best woman pianist in the world." Her recordings for DG demonstrate the diversity of her extraordinary talent and broad repertoire interests. As a soloist, she has delivered some of the great performances of the Romantic piano concertos (her Tchaikovsky First is an undisputed classic). But she also excels on an intimate scale, joining partner Gidon Kremer in chamber music of composers from Beethoven to Messiaen.

Did You Know? Before winning the Chopin Competition in Warsaw in 1965, Martha Argerich considered becoming a secretary.

Scouting Report: One of opera's super divas, Grammy Award winner Kathleen Battle "sings like an angel." [Vanity Fair] Her media appearances and runaway DG bestseller "Spirituals in Concert" continue to broaden her audience. New York Newsday raved about Battle's Carnegie Hall recital debut last spring ending with the plea: "One can only hope that the microphones in front of Battle were placed there to capture the event.... This would make for a sensational recording." Good news. DG got it all.

LEONARD BERNSTEIN

composer/conductor

Birthday: August 25 Birthplace: Lawrence, MA

Studied: Piano, composition & conducting at Harvard, Curtis and Tanglewood

1992 CD Highlights: Mahler: Ninth Sym. (his only recording with Berlin); Bruckner: Ninth Sym.; Sibelius: First Sym.; Works by Rorem, Del Tredici & his own Jubilee Games

Leonard Bernstein was one of the great artists of our century, who brought an unquenchable spirit and passion to all his life's work. His DG legacy includes a peerless cycle of Mahler Symphonies, splendid accounts of works by American composers such as Ives, Gershwin, and his beloved friend Aaron Copland, and invaluable recordings of his own works, including his musical masterpieces West Side Story and most recently, Candide.

Did You Know? Leonard Bernstein could never choose from his many Swatch watches, so he often wore more than one.

GIUSEPPE SINOPOLI

conductor

Birthday: November 2 Birthplace: Venice, Italy

Studied: Violin, organ and medicine

1992 CD Highlights: Mahler: Das klagende Lied; Respighi Orchestral Works; Puccini's Tosca; Wagner's Flying Dutchman with Studer and Domingo; Elgar's First Symphony

Scouting Report: Giuseppe Sinopoli is a musical maverick. The phrase "basic repertoire" could never be used about his DG efforts in the orchestral realm, with recordings that continually surprise, even shock, with their originality. No less so with his opera recordings. The New York Times raved that his Madama Butterfly was "a tremendously captivating and convincing performance from a controversial conductor."

Did You Know? Giuseppe Sinnopoli received a Ph.D in psychoanalysis after his dissertation "A Study of the Artistic Expression of Deviant Mentality." However, he never practiced medicine and instead began composing and conducting.

CHERYL STUDER

soprano

Birthday: October 24 Birthplace: Midland, MI

Studied: Piano, viola, began voice at 12. Studied at Interlochen & Tanglewood.

1992 CD Highlights: Schubert: Songs; Verdi: La Traviata with Pavarotti; Sacred Arias; Wagner: Flying Dutchman; Mahler: Das Klagende Lied; Barber: Songs; Donizetti: Lucia di Lammermoor

Scouting Report: The Wall Street Journal wrote that Cheryl Studer “has never met a role that didn’t beg her to sing it.” DG’s new exclusive artist is quickly becoming the rage of the opera world. The Gramophone review of her Salome says it all—“the power of Nilsson, the understanding of Behrens and the subtlety of Caballe...She has all her rivals’ accomplishments and something more.”

Did You Know? An avid theorist, Cheryl Studer believes that her “Midwestern twang” has helped her voice production. Her alleged favorite dessert is Cherry Strudel.

VIENNA PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

ensemble

Founded: Vienna 1842

1992 CD Highlights: Bruckner: Ninth & Sibelius:

First Symphonies with Bernstein; Debussy: Pélleas et Mélisande & works by Webern & Schoenberg with Abbado; Beethoven: Missa Solemnis with Levine; Brahms: 2nd & 3rd Symphonies with Giulini

Scouting Report: The Vienna Philharmonic is one of the cornerstones of classical music. No other orchestra has played under a more prestigious list of conductors: Wagner, Verdi, Bruckner, Mahler, Brahms, Liszt, Furtwängler, Karajan, and Bernstein, to mention a few! After seeing the VPO not long ago, The New York Times wrote "The musical responsiveness of this orchestra may be a legend, but it is no myth."

Did You Know? The Vienna Philharmonic celebrates its 150th Anniversary in 1992—the same year as the New York Philharmonic

pianist

Birthday: April 19

Birthplace: Moscow

Studied: Began piano at 5, Gnnessin Music School (Moscow)

1992 CD Highlights: Piano Sonatas by Schubert & Liszt

Scouting Report: One of DG's young stars, Lilya Zilberstein's dazzling technique and tonal sensitivity are inviting comparisons to the great 19th-century pianist, Clara Schumann. Her DG debut recording of Rachmaninoff and Shostakovich earned glowing praise from the San Francisco Examiner: "She is evidently a pianist of striking individuality.... The Rachmaninoff Preludes have rarely been treated to such an electrifying reading."

Did You Know? Lilya Zilberstein now lives in Hamburg with her trumpet playing husband and their baby. (Sinfonia Domestica!)

pianist

Birthday: December 5 Birthplace: Zabrze, Upper Silesia, Poland

Studied: Piano at 5, Katowice Conservatory

1992 CD Highlights: Lutoslawski: Piano Concerto; Schubert: Impromptus; Liszt: Recital; Beethoven: Concertos with Bernstein & Vienna, Debussy: Preludes

Scouting Report: Krystian Zimerman is a renaissance man with passionate interests not only in music but also in philosophy, current events, and science. "Music reflects the experiences you get from seeing a movie, or reflecting on what's happening in Asia, or what's happening in your life," says Zimerman. The Washington Post has compared him to his revered mentor and friend: "Zimerman has a singing resonance in his lyric melodic lines that makes one think of the playing of his fellow countryman Arthur Rubinstein."

Did You Know? Zimerman can dismantle, repair, and reassemble a concert grand in a single evening.
